ROSIE & TATUM: THE NEW POWER COUPLE!

ROSIE O'Donnell has denied dating Tatum O'Neal, but only The National ENQUIRER has this world exclusive photo proof that the two really are an item!

The same-sex couple posed for the picture on Aug. 7, after sharing an intimate dinner at Da Silvano, a popular Italian celebrity restaurant in Manhattan.

An eyewitness told The ENQUIRER: "They'd asked for a table way in the back, and they were clearly on a date. Tatum was dressed to the nines in a slinky black dress, and they drank red wine.

Gentle whispering & holding hands on cozy dinner date

"During the meal, the two whispered to each other a lot, held hands and seemed very much in love."

Before they left, another couple asked Rosie, 53, and Tatum – a 51-year-old mother of three who has admitted she likes and dates women – to pose for a photo. "Rosie clearly wanted to cover up the secret date, and was reluctant. But she finally gave in, and Tatum leaned into her for the snap," the source revealed.

According to a published report, a friend was quoted as saying: "They aren't quite ready to go public with their romance."

But on Sept. 3, Rosie appeared to be warming to confirming the relationship. She joked and called Tatum "my new wife."

Taylor to Hillary: Leave me alone!

Taylor wants no part of Hillary's political game

HILLARY Clinton has turned from stumping for the White House to stalking – and her victim is Taylor Swift!

That's the word from insiders, who tattled to The National ENQUIRER that Hillary is acting more like an obsessed teenybopper than a 67-year-old Democratic candidate, hounding Taylor, 25, with desperate invites to hang out, talk and ultimately jump onto her political bandwagon – along with her legions of fans, of course!

"Hillary and her team believe Taylor is everything they need in a high-profile supporter," divulged an insider. "She's intelligent, enormously popular and a household name."

But sources told The ENQUIRER that while Taylor is flattered by all the attention, she prefers to stay out of politics and concentrate on making music! NE

PIERCED PIERCE!

Hollywood hunk Pierce Brosnan needed more than a Bond-Aid after opening a nasty gash over his right eye, the result of a paddleboard accident that left him shaken, stirred – and stitched! The fit 62-year-old former James Bond has been spotted on the board before, but this is the first time Agent Uh-Oh-7 nearly poked out a "GoldenEye!"

BARBRA Streisand will have nothing to do with Josh Brolin's wedding to fiancée Kathryn Boyd!

The 73-year-old diva has been in a grumpy mood ever since Josh – son of her husband, James Brolin, 75 – popped the question to his 28-year-old former personal assistant last spring, a source told The National ENQUIRER.

stepson Josh R as she snubs his wedding!

STREISAND FEELS BRIDE-TO-BE IS A MONEY-GRABBING SOCIAL CLIMBER!

"Barbra suspects that Kathryn is a social climber who's using Josh for his money and Tinseltown connections," the source revealed.

"But Josh thinks Barbra is just being a meddling mother-in-law. He's going forward with the marriage whether Barbra likes it or not!"

A family friend said much of Barbra's reticence has to do with Josh's ex-wife, actress Diane Lane, who divorced Josh in 2013 after nine years.

"Barbra is great friends with Diane. She's the one who originally hooked her and Josh up," the friend said. "She was very invested in the two of them, so it broke her heart when they split up – and she blamed Josh for it."

But Josh's plans are moving forward for an intimate Christmas wedding without Barbra, according to insiders.

"Josh has bumped heads with Barbra repeatedly. She's tried to lecture him and mother him, but geez, he's a 47-year-old man!" the friend said. "He just tells Kathryn she doesn't need to kiss up to her."

But a source added Barbra also seethes that "Josh is basically marrying his hired help when he once had an Academy Award-nominated actress for a wife."

And now it seems the rift between Josh and Barbra is just too wide. "They're both stubborn and outspoken," said a source.

Earlier this year, The ENQUIRER reported that Barbra is hiding secrets in her own 16-year marriage and that a $550 million divorce is looming. NE

Boreanaz: from hunk to achy old 'Bones'

A MYSTERY illness has struck David Boreanaz, and producers on his TV series had to scramble to cover for a once-virile star now shockingly frail and weak!

When David, who plays FBI Special Agent Seeley Booth on "Bones," returned to filming following the summer hiatus, he wasn't the same, set insiders revealed, and writers and directors quickly rewrote scripts to keep him off camera as much as possible.

"David said he was recovering from jaundice," dished a source.

"He's back at work," added the set-side source, "but scenes had to be reworked or cut. His workload was drastically shortened."

Jaundice, a yellow discoloration of the skin and the whites of the eyes, is a sign of an underlying serious disease and often has other symptoms such as nausea, vomiting, abdominal pain, fever and weakness.

On Aug. 1, the actor posted a pic with his father on Twitter, saying: "Thank you Dad. #love #health."

Ailing David thanked his dad for his support

Bryan's neighbors got a restraining order after his threats

ENQUIRER EXCLUSIVE

SANDRA Bullock's new boyfriend is a drug-and-alcohol abuser with an arrest record and explosive temper that may make cheating, Nazi-sympathizing ex-husband Jesse James look tame!

Sandra, 51, began dating Bryan Randall, 49, more than two months ago as he ended a three-year relationship with Paris St. John, 26, daughter of soap star Kristoff St. John.

"Five years after her divorce from Jesse, it looks like Sandra has found herself in a dangerous new relationship," a friend told The National ENQUIRER. "Whether she's aware of Bryan's background or not, she should proceed with caution.

"He apparently jumped right into a relationship with Sandy," added the friend. "She may be headed for heartbreak before she knows it."

The ENQUIRER's investigation shows Bryan may not be solid father material for Sandy's son, Louis, 5.

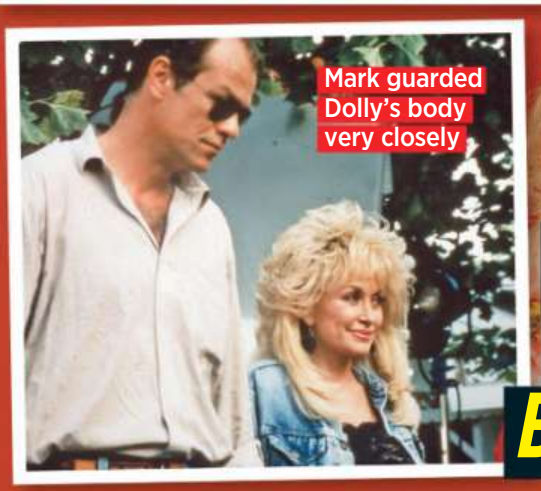

In 1988, Bryan was arrested on a DUI charge in Portland, Ore., and multiple arrest warrants were issued for missed court dates in the next five years.

He went on a drunken four-day bender in 1990 that ended in a destroyed hotel room and put Bryan in a hospital for severe dehydration.

After pleading guilty to DUI, he served four days in jail and two years probation.

Dolly's sizzling 6-year affair comes back to HAUNT her!

Mark guarded Dolly's body very closely

Husband Carl's fury as she still pines for BEEFCAKE BODYGUARD

DOLLY Parton's furious husband, Carl Dean, is threatening to call off their 50-year wedding vow renewal ceremony!

He's raging because the country queen has never gotten over a scorching six-year liaison she had with a hunky bodyguard, The National ENQUIRER has learned.

Carl, 73, "hit the roof," when he heard fans were buzzing over rumors 69-year-old Dolly had once cheated on him with a strapping 6-foot-5 "mountain of muscle" identified as Mark Kiracofe, said a source.

But the long-ago affair has been confirmed by The ENQUIRER – and we can report that it not only pushed the couple's marriage to the brink, but Dolly still hasn't been able to get over Mark almost 20 years later!

"Dolly can't quit Mark in her heart – and when Carl confronted Dolly about it, she admitted as such!" the source told The ENQUIRER.

"And that doesn't sit well with Carl, who is ready to tell her to forget their planned big wedding anniversary next May – when they were set to renew their vows.

"The fact is, Carl's furious over this, and now the bad memories of what happened between Dolly and Mark are flooding back to him and leaving him sick in his stomach."

After a published report named Mark as Dolly's former lover, the 62-year-old man told The ENQUIRER in early August that he had no interest in discussing "the past," and only said he wished Dolly well.

Though the star's reps denied the affair at the time, The ENQUIRER reported back in 1996 that Mark gave Dolly, then 50, a stinging ultimatum: "You'll have to decide – it's Carl or me."

When Dolly said she wouldn't leave her husband of 29 years, Mark quit his job as her security chief and walked out of her life.

Dolly first met divorced Mark in 1989 when he started working for her as a stage equipment handler. She quickly promoted him to chief of security while their romance raged.

"Mark was the love of her life," an insider disclosed at the time. "Over the years she's had her flings, and Carl has had his. But Dolly never had anything quite like this before!"

– BOB HARTLEIN

ON' menace: source

Bryan also suggested he did drugs in a post on his Facebook page: "I'm pretty sure (his daughter Skylar) was conceived while I was loaded on LSD."

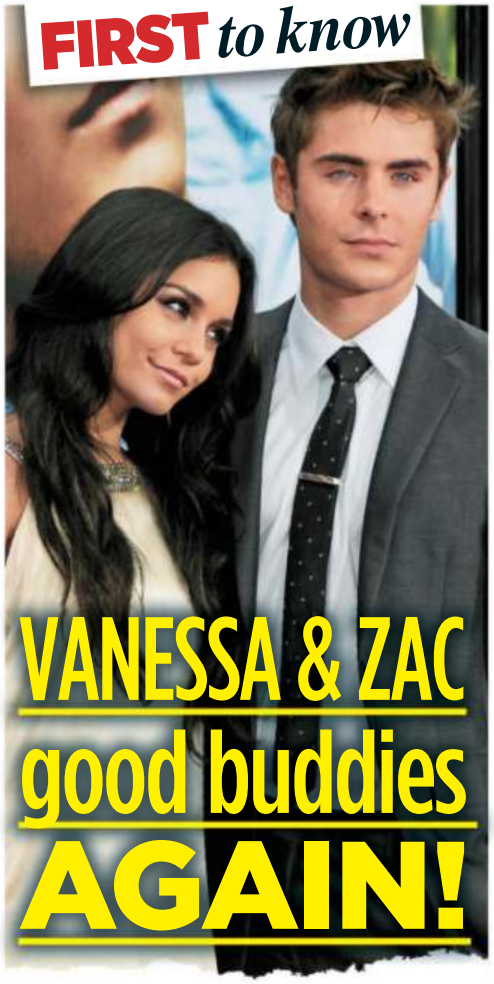

The ENQUIRER obtained a restraining order filed against 6-foot-2 Bryan by a neighbor in 2012, stating the man feared for his safety, alleging Bryan went into a rage after the neighbor's dog defecated in his front yard.

The neighbor, identified as John Stacer, said Bryan retaliated against him and his girlfriend. They found "feces spread in our doorway."

Added the neighbor: "I know he has guns and a notoriously erratic temper, and I am scared of what he will do next ..." NE

VANESSA & ZAC good buddies AGAIN!

VANESSA Hudgens has secretly turned to old boyfriend Zac Efron to help her cope with a devastating family crisis – and turned her back on steady boyfriend, actor Austin Butler! And Zac came running, despite having his own steady gal pal, Sami Miro!

"Vanessa quietly reached out to Zac during her time of need," said a source. "And he was only too kind to offer her a shoulder to cry on."

Vanessa, 26, is distraught over her father Greg's battle with stage 4 cancer, and turned to her first real love Zac, 27, who – as The National ENQUIRER reported at the time – was close to popping the question back in 2010.

Vanessa recently accepted an award for Breakthrough Performer at the Industry Dance Awards in Los Angeles, where she also revealed her dad's health crisis. She choked up while dedicating her award to Austin's late mother, Lori, as well as her dad.

"Vanessa may have dedicated her award to Austin and his late mom," said the source. "But what he doesn't know is that she still pines for Zac!"

'We both want to make another Sadie!'

CANCER SURVIVOR CHRISTINA REVEALS HER HOPES FOR A MIRACLE CHILD

Christina and Martyn had their daughter, Sadie, in 2011

IF CHRISTINA Applegate gets her way, she'll be married – with TWO children!

The 43-year-old breast cancer survivor, who bravely underwent a double mastectomy in 2008, cried tears of joy when she became pregnant with "miracle baby" Sadie, now 4.

"Now Christina and Martyn want another child!" a family insider revealed to The National ENQUIRER.

Back in 2013, the "Anchorman" star worried she and husband Martyn LeNoble, 46, might be too old to have a second child.

Another concern was Christina's cancer and subsequent surgery. Doctors found cancer cells in her left breast, but they also discovered Christina is a carrier of the BRCA gene, which means a higher susceptibility to developing breast and ovarian cancer. This could cause her to decide on a more radical operation.

It's the same gene that prompted Angelina Jolie's preventive double mastectomy and surgery to remove her ovaries and fallopian tubes.

"I think we both want to make another Sadie," Christina said. "We watch this little person, and she's so perfect and she enhances our life so much that you go, 'God, how could we not want to produce more of these?' But we're both kind of like, 'Eh, we're a little old and we don't know.'"

But since then, said the insider, the couple have changed their tune.

"Christina has at least three girlfriends in their mid-40s who have toddlers," divulged the insider.

"She and Martyn are so excited at the thought of bringing another child into their family. But no one is more excited than Sadie, who wished for a sibling on her fourth birthday in January!"

The insider said because of Christina's age and past health issues, they're also considering other routes to expand their family.

"Adoption is a huge option," said the source. "But they're aware of how lengthy and complicated the adoption process can be, so they're also seriously considering surrogacy."

No matter how it happens, fans are praying Christina will be making an announcement soon!

JESSICA'S CASH GIFT!

Alba's DESPERATE to give her husband a baby boy

HOLLYWOOD beauty Jessica Alba wants to present husband Cash Warren with something special – a new son!

Sports-mad Cash has always dreamed of having a boy to add to daughters Honor, 7, and Haven, 4. Now friends revealed Jessica's determined to make that happen.

"It's no secret that Cash wants a son to play basketball with and watch sports," explained an insider.

"He feels left out sometimes because his daughters like doing lots of girly stuff with their mom."

Cash's dad, Michael – who starred on TV's "Hill Street Blues" and won two national basketball titles with UCLA – is desperate for a grandson, added the source.

"Grandpa Michael dreams of having an all-star player in the family one day," said the insider.

"Sports also reigns supreme for Cash. The sports channels would be on TV 24/7 if Jessica and the girls didn't complain.

"In fact, the only time he gets to watch an uninterrupted game is if he lets his daughters give him a makeover!

"When Jessica sees Cash with smudged makeup all over his face, she cracks up."

According to the source, the "Sin City" hottie, 34, isn't totally sold on dictating the sex of a child she's yet to conceive.

But she's on the same page as Cash, 36, and his dad in wanting a brother for Haven and Honor.

"They're doing some research into what they can do to enhance odds of having a son," added the source.

"But for now Jessica and Cash are keeping their fingers crossed and praying for a boy!"

"He's seen what a great mom Mariska has been to her three kids over the years, and wants some of that to rub off on Coco," a family pal told The National ENQUIRER.

"He's sure his pal will be up for the task. It will be a labor of love."

Ice-T, 57, and Coco, 36, are expecting daughter Chanel Nicole in December. Mariska's trio with hubby Peter Hermann are August, 9, Amaya, 4, and Andrew, 4.

"He knows that with Mariska's sage advice and guiding hand ... Coco is sure to come to fully embrace motherhood," said the source.

Ice-T has two kids, LeTesha and Tracy, from prior relationships. He and Coco got married in 2005.

'NCIS' STAR SCOTT TO THE RESCUE!

Scott spoke in Zoe's favor in court

SCOTT Bakula has gone on record to defend his "NCIS: New Orleans" co-star Zoe McLellan in her nasty custody battle, calling her the ultimate loving mom!

The brunette beauty, 40, has been living in the Big Easy – where the show is filmed – with her 2-year-old son, Sebastian.

"Her life is and has been about one thing and one thing only: being Sebastian's mommy," said Scott, 60, in a court declaration.

But Zoe's ex-husband, struggling actor Jean-Pierre Gillain, isn't happy about having to travel to New Orleans from L.A. to see his son.

He's also been angling for custody – claiming that Zoe has been dumping little Sebastian with nannies while the cameras rolled.

Zoe struck a deal with her ex said to pay him $4,000-a-month in child support.

HULK 'INHERITED' A RACIAL BIAS!

IN AN instantly infamous – and weepy – "mea hulka," disgraced wrestler Hulk Hogan passed the buck on his racist rants first exposed by The National ENQUIRER!

"A lot of people need to realize that you inherit things from your environment, and where I grew up was South Tampa, and it was a really rough neighborhood – very low income," the Hulkster said in an interview on ABC's "Good Morning America."

"The word was just thrown around like it was nothing. All my white friends, all my black friends. To hear the word on a daily basis ... I think that was part of the culture and environment I grew up in."

The 10-time world champ, born Terry Bollea, has since been fired by the WWE, and confessed that at his lowest point he considered suicide!

"Oh, my gosh. Please forgive me. Please forgive me," whined the 62-year-old, who asked that filming be stopped at one point so he could cry.

PORTRAIT OF EVIL!

HERE'S deranged TV Shooter Vester Lee Flanagan's final close-up!

In a bombshell world exclusive, The National ENQUIRER has obtained the graphic last photo of the former WDBJ-TV reporter who killed two of his colleagues on Aug. 26.

The shootings were seen live on the air and shocked the world.

The local news reporter, who had been fired from his station, killed reporter Alison Parker and her cameraman, Adam Ward, in an act of revenge. Vicki Gardner, the woman they were interviewing, was shot but survived.

Flanagan – who used the professional name "Bryce Williams" – then led police on a chase before the 41-year-old madman shot himself and crashed his car. He later died in a hospital.

A source who provided The ENQUIRER with the gruesome photo explained: "I want the world to see what this b-----d looked like after he killed those innocent people.

"The coward then took his own life rather than face the families of his victims. I hope he rots in hell!"

Glen Campbell's son nabbed by cops after horror crash!

COUNTRY music legend Glen Campbell's oldest son Travis was nearly killed in a horrific car accident while his ailing father plays out his sad last days in a Nashville nursing home, The National ENQUIRER has exclusively learned.

Travis narrowly avoided not only killing himself but also another family when he T-boned a car, a source said.

Glen with young children Kelli, Travis and Kane

"It was a pretty significant impact. It was very, very lucky that no one else was hurt," Lt. Chad Gordon of the Winfield (Kan.) Police Dept. confirmed to The ENQUIRER.

After the Aug. 31 accident, Travis was arrested on an outstanding warrant for allowing his dog to roam off the leash and was taken into custody, authorities reported. He posted $150 bond, was cited for failure to yield and was released, cops said.

The violent near miss occurred at 7:45 p.m., when Travis rammed his white Lincoln Continental into a Toyota Camry carrying two people. "Both cars were totaled," said Lt. Gordon. NE

IMPOTENT LARRY COMES CLEAN OVER AFFAIR!

Bedtime STORIES!

Shawn recently found out Larry was cavorting with her sis, top

TALK-show legend Larry King has finally confessed his secret steamy affair with his sister-in-law – five years after The National ENQUIRER revealed the scandal!

The now 81-year-old former CNN host admitted that he never had intercourse with his wife's younger sister, but acknowledged some other type of activity occurred.

"It was just a flirtation," Larry insisted in an interview.

"I never made love to her."

The bombshell tell-all also revealed the randy octogenarian can't have sex even if he wanted to because he's impotent!

The ENQUIRER first exposed the tryst between Larry and his sister-in-law, Shannon Engemann, then 45, in 2010, after it was learned the affair sparked a huge rift in his marriage to wife Shawn King.

"I had sex with Larry, and he bought me an expensive car," Shannon told a close pal, referring to a $160,000 Mercedes-Benz that led to exposure of the affair.

The ENQUIRER in 2010

A suspicious Shawn eventually found out her husband actually bought the car for Shannon.

NEWS

Bad news for wife Catherine: VIAGRA MAY CAUSE VISION LOSS!

Docs' warning to Michael Douglas HAVING SEX WILL MAKE YOU BLIND!

HIS wife is a real looker – but it looks like Michael Douglas may have to choose between looking or touching hottie Catherine Zeta-Jones!

That's because the 70-year-old macho movie star could be risking his vision – with Viagra!

The National ENQUIRER has already revealed the "Fatal Attraction" star's eyes looked severely inflamed and bloodshot at an American Cancer Society benefit in New York City on May 4.

Michael could be risking his vision by using Viagra

Startled friends said Michael "scared people" and needed to be "checked out soon" – but his frightening vision problems may have more to do with an active sex life!

Several medical studies on Viagra have linked the erectile dysfunction remedy to eye problems, including bleeding at the back of the eyes as the retinas degenerate.

That could leave Michael in a penile pickle as he's forced to choose between preserving his eyesight or satisfying his A-list wife!

"My feeling is the human body comes first, and sex, unfortunately, has to take a backseat – even when you have a wife like Catherine Zeta-Jones," Dr. Stuart Fischer told The ENQUIRER.

In 2013, the Food and Drug Administration launched an inquiry into reports of blindness among users of erectile dysfunction drugs like Viagra, Cialis and Levitra.

Michael also has added chemical complications after his recent treatment for throat cancer, as Dr. Fischer explained.

"Any cancer treatment medications – like chemotherapy drugs – can increase the side effects of more benign medications."

The news couldn't come at a worse time for Michael as he's fighting to preserve his crumbling marriage.

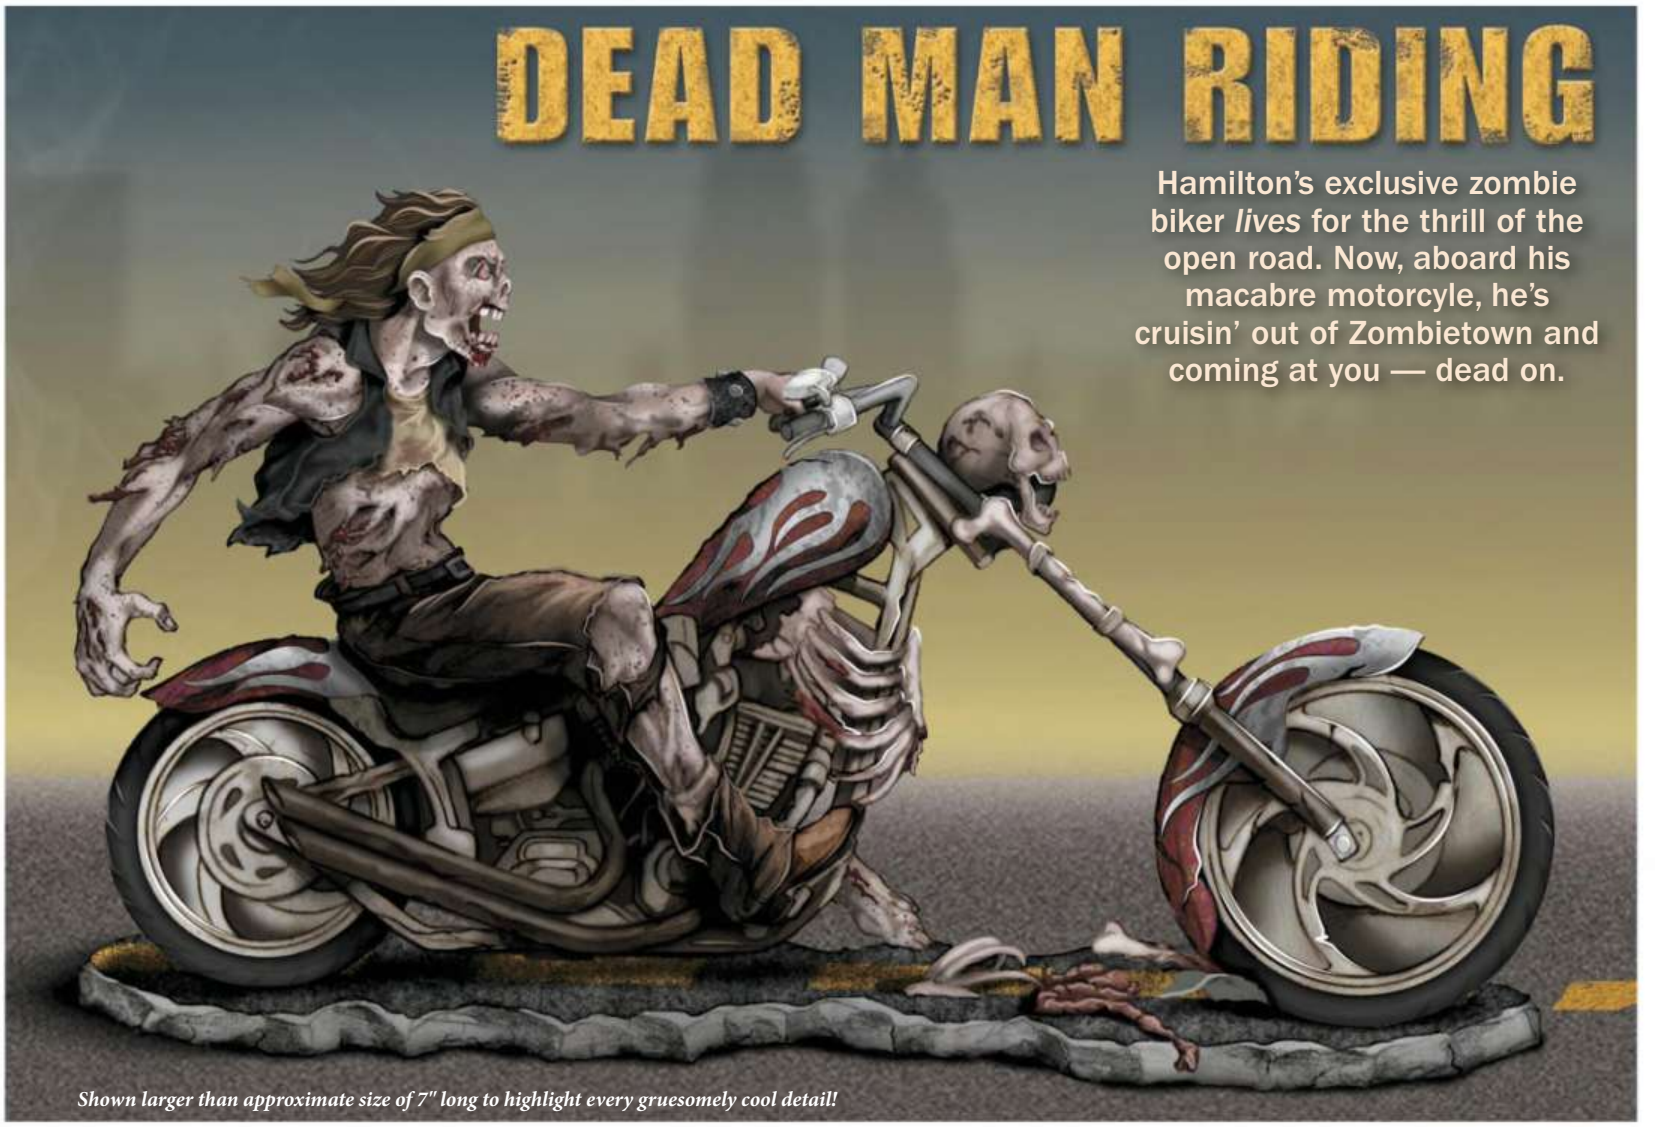

The ENQUIRER reported earlier this year that Michael was trying to avert a potential $300 million divorce by squiring Catherine back to their old Bermuda love nest.

But there's good news: Dr. Fischer may have an alternative solution for Michael's alleged woes in the sack.

"I'd recommend Arginine," he told The ENQUIRER. "It's an amino acid with a very similar effect to Viagra." NE

JOAN RIVERS' TOP SECRET MEDICAL FILE E

THE truth behind Joan Rivers' death has been buried by a massive cover-up – but its scope can finally be revealed after an exhaustive 12-month investigation conducted by The National ENQUIRER.

Our probe into the Hollywood icon's tragic death has unearthed bombshell evidence that could lead to involuntary manslaughter charges being filed against the two bungling doctors who made fatal mistakes in Joan's care.

The ENQUIRER obtained two official reports on Joan's death containing hundreds of pages of documents – and we can expose a shocking web of secrets and lies spun by the government officials and medical experts involved!

What's more, world-renowned forensic pathologist Dr. Cyril Wecht has claimed to be stunned by the clear-cut case of "negligence" by the doctors who allowed 19 critical minutes to pass before they began performing CPR on 81-year-old Joan.

"You have gross negligence here. There is no question of that at all, and I don't hesitate to say so! This is a death that should not have occurred," he told The ENQUIRER.

Danno Hanks, a respected private investigator who has acted as a consultant to the DEA and FBI, and reviewed the documents at The ENQUIRER's request, added: "It looks like a cover-up!

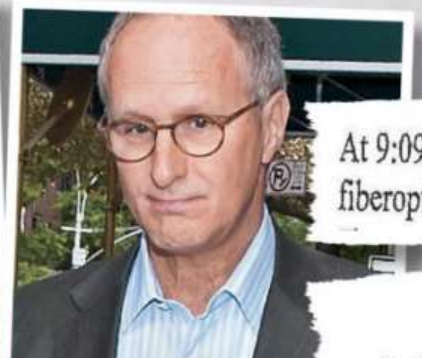

"Over and over again, I'm looking at pages filled with stone-walling by the doctors, the center and its staff, missing data logs, suspicious IT personnel and more. It's breathtaking."

Taken together, the alleged fabrications, manipulations and obfuscations suggest a wide-ranging conspiracy that has successfully shrouded the facts of what happened on Aug. 28, 2014, when Joan underwent a procedure at the Yorkville Endoscopy clinic – until now.

After reviewing reports filed by New York's Department of Health and Human Services and the New York City Medical Examiner's Office, The ENQUIRER investigation revealed these glaring irregularities:

■ No autopsy was ever performed on Joan's body following her death on Sept. 4, 2014, when she was disconnected from life support at Mount Sinai Hospital in New York.

■ The New York City Medical Examiner's Office continues to refuse the release of the documents or findings other than a cause of death, including the evidence underpinning that cause of death.

■ The files contain "conflicting information in the medical record" about when doctors at Yorkville Endoscopy initiated lifesaving measures on Joan, and "the overall management of the patient" during these crucial moments.

■ The ear, nose and throat doctor who performed two unsanctioned procedures on Joan, Dr. Gwen Korovin, was never listed in the medical record – and her identity may have remained a mystery except for a random note penned by the anesthesiologist!

■ When contacted by the city medical examiner following Joan's death, Dr. Korovin initially ducked calls. When she finally responded, it was only through a lawyer.

■ The medical examiner, Dr. Jay Stahl-Herz, noted that he found no notes from Dr. Korovin as part of Yorkville Endoscopy's record on Joan's surgeries.

■ It wasn't until Sept. 11 when Dr. Stahl-Herz asked Dr. Korovin's attorney, Michael Kelton, to supply those notes.

■ Four days later, Michael faxed over a single page of handwritten notes, but they did "not contain any patient information," as Dr. Stahl-Herz stated in records obtained by The ENQUIRER.

■ The head of Yorkville Endoscopy, Dr. Lawrence Cohen, told the medical examiner he performed only one procedure when, in fact, he performed two.

In a stunning finding, The ENQUIRER has uncovered that the "Fashion Police" host was suffering from acid reflux and, according to the court papers, had signed off on only one procedure, an endoscopy to explore "the area between the throat and upper intestines."

Despite that, the DHHS report noted that TWO

Mary's pals PRAYING for a papal miracle!

They hope Pope visit will save her life

MARY Tyler Moore needs a miracle – and friends are begging Pope Francis to personally bless the TV icon in hopes of reviving the dying star!

"Mary is deeply religious, and once had an audience with Pope John Paul II," a close source told The National ENQUIRER.

"Her friends have reached out to officials in Vatican City, hoping Pope Francis will stop by her Connecticut mansion after he visits New York City this month.

"They're praying His Holiness will find an extra hour in his busy schedule for her. His blessing may be the only thing between life and death for poor Mary!"

Sadly, 78-year-old Mary is a shell of her former self. As The ENQUIRER has reported, the beloved TV legend has lost her decades-long struggle with numerous health woes.

The wheelchair-bound star suffers from diabetes and dementia-related symptoms, and hasn't appeared in public since 2011.

Mary met with Pope John Paul II in 1982

As one eyewitness recently suggested to The ENQUIRER, Mary seemed to be "at death's door."

She's now living out her final days in her secluded Greenwich mansion, surrounded by caregivers and attended to by her third husband, Dr. Robert Levine.

Back in 1982, the still-vivacious Emmy-winning star, who attended Catholic schools, traveled to the Vatican with her late mother, Marjorie, for a private audience with Pope John Paul II.

Said the source: "At the time, Mary was reeling from the deaths of her beloved son, Richie, and her sister Elizabeth. Meeting and praying with the Pope allowed her to go on."

In 1978, Elizabeth died of an overdose of the narcotic Darvon and alcohol at the age of 21. Two years later, Mary's only child, Richard Meeker, died at age 24 from a self-inflicted accidental gunshot wound.

Added the insider: "Mary's friends are frantically hoping that, should the Pope see her, some kind of miracle extending her life will result!"

Linda spills her sizzling sex secrets!

Linda is enjoying her own sexual revolution

IN A sizzling new memoir, "Dallas" beauty Linda Gray revealed she went from wedding-night virgin to post-divorce cougar!

"I reveled in my late-in-life sexual awakening," the 75-year-old actress said of her flings with younger men in "The Road to Happiness is Always Under Construction."

Linda gushed when referring to one hot hookup with an unnamed musician as "a revelation" – but revealed her boudoir didn't start out busy!

Co-star Larry Hagman was just a friend

The young model waited to have sex until she married Capitol Records art director Ed Thrasher at age 21 in 1962. But she called their honeymoon romp "a crushing disappointment."

Linda – once called "the b---h with the long legs" by Elizabeth Taylor – hasn't slowed down: "I adore men, and have a strong drive to have fun!" NE

LOVE REMATCH! SERENA COURTS RAPPER DRAKE

SHE'S the best singles player in the world, but tennis superstar Serena Williams' days of being single may soon be over!

The National ENQUIRER has learned the hard-hitting bachelorette, worth a whopping $145 million, could be warming up for a "love rematch" with former beau Drake.

Drake and Serena frolic in London

Serena, 33, and the 28-year-old rapper first dated in 2010, and were recently spotted locking lips in a swanky Italian restaurant in Cincinnati.

"Serena doesn't want to be single forever, and she admires Drake because he works so hard at his craft," said a source.

Now fans are hoping the rekindled romance will put the multiple Grand Slam champ back on track.

In July, The ENQUIRER published exclusive photographs of an apparently blotto Serena stumbling around a nightclub in Palm Beach, Fla. – disturbing after Serena's embarrassing Wimbledon performance in 2014 when she suffered a shocking early-round loss to an inferior player.

She rebounded with the "Serena Slam," winning the 2014 U.S. Open and this year's Australian Open, French Open, and Wimbledon – where Drake was a constant presence.

Drake is ready to settle down after dating Rihanna and Nicki Minaj, said sources.

WORKAHOLIC SELLECK'S KILLING HIS MARRIAGE!

$25 million battle looms

ENQUIRER EXCLUSIVE

A $25 million divorce shocker threatens the 27-year marriage of former "Magnum, P.I." heartthrob Tom Selleck and his wife, British-born actress Jillie Mack, The National ENQUIRER has learned in a bombshell world exclusive.

And the square-jawed 70-year-old star can only blame his continued TV success on what pals fear could lead to the couple's eventual split!

Father-of-two Tom is currently filming the sixth season of the TV hit "Blue Bloods," in which the rugged actor portrays NYPD Police Commissioner Frank Reagan, who heads an Irish-American family full of officers. Tom's family lives on a 63-acre California avocado ranch.

A source told The ENQUIRER: "Tom's continued success is what's wrecking his marriage. He has an incredible workload and is constantly shooting in New York, while Jillie remains behind stewing in California."

Tom's rep told The ENQUIRER it's "completely false" the couple plan to divorce, but another insider said: "Their time apart is, in fact, tearing them apart – and friends fear it's going to lead them to split. His success the first time around killed his first marriage – so Tom only has himself to blame."

The 6-foot-4 star became an instant sex symbol when he portrayed macho Thomas Magnum, a private investigator living on Oahu, Hawaii, on the classic series from 1980 to 1988.

It was work and distance that destroyed his 11-year marriage to model Jacquelyn Ray when Tom begin filming "Magnum, P.I." on location.

"While Tom is 70, Jillie is 57, and doesn't seem content with Tom always working," added the second source.

And a divorce this time would cost him a lot more!

– ALAN BUTTERFIELD

TOM IN WATER THEFT FLAP

BACK home, Tom is still reeling from a lawsuit, which accused the star of stealing water.

The lawsuit, obtained by The ENQUIRER, claimed Tom stole truckloads from a public hydrant and took it to his ranch in drought-stricken California.

The Calleguas Municipal Water District said a tanker filled up more than a dozen times and hauled water to the ranch where Tom grows avocados.

The district spent nearly $22,000 on a private investigator to document the alleged thefts.

The Ventura County Sheriff's Department could not prove that a crime occurred, Capt. John Reilly said. NE

DONALD TRUMP IN HIS OWN WORDS

Working with dad WASN'T ENOUGH

'I entertained LOFTIER DREAMS'

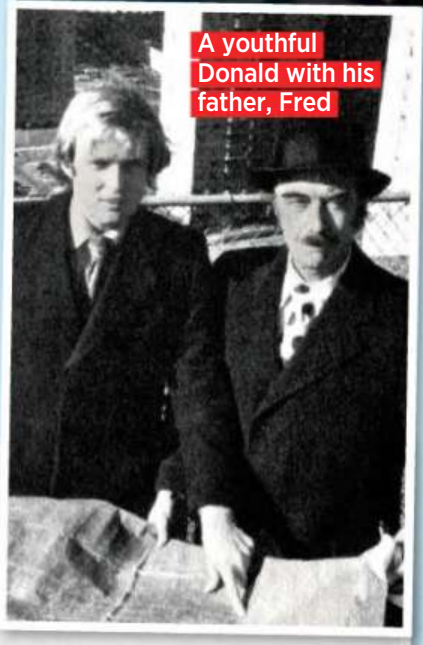

ENQUIRER EXCLUSIVE PART 2 OF 3

LAST week, The National ENQUIRER launched a multipart series written exclusively for our readers by Donald Trump. In this installment, the White House hopeful reveals life lessons he learned working for his father that have led to his remarkable success.

AFTER graduating from the New York Military Academy in 1964, I decided to enter the real estate business, and enrolled in Fordham University in the Bronx. But after two years, I decided to test myself against the best. I applied to the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania – and got in.

In college, while reading listings of federally financed housing projects in foreclosure, I discovered Swifton Village, a 1,200-unit apartment development in Cincinnati, Ohio. I bought it with my father, Fred Trump – and it was my first big deal!

Swifton Village was very troubled. There were 800 vacant apartments, and the developers had gone under. But it gave us a terrific opportunity. We paid less than $6 million for a development which had cost twice that much to build just two years earlier.

A youthful Donald with his father, Fred

The Donald, at 29, proposing a N.Y.C. convention center

After we negotiated the deal, I learned from my father that success was a matter of management and marketing. The challenge was to get the place rented to good tenants who would stay there.

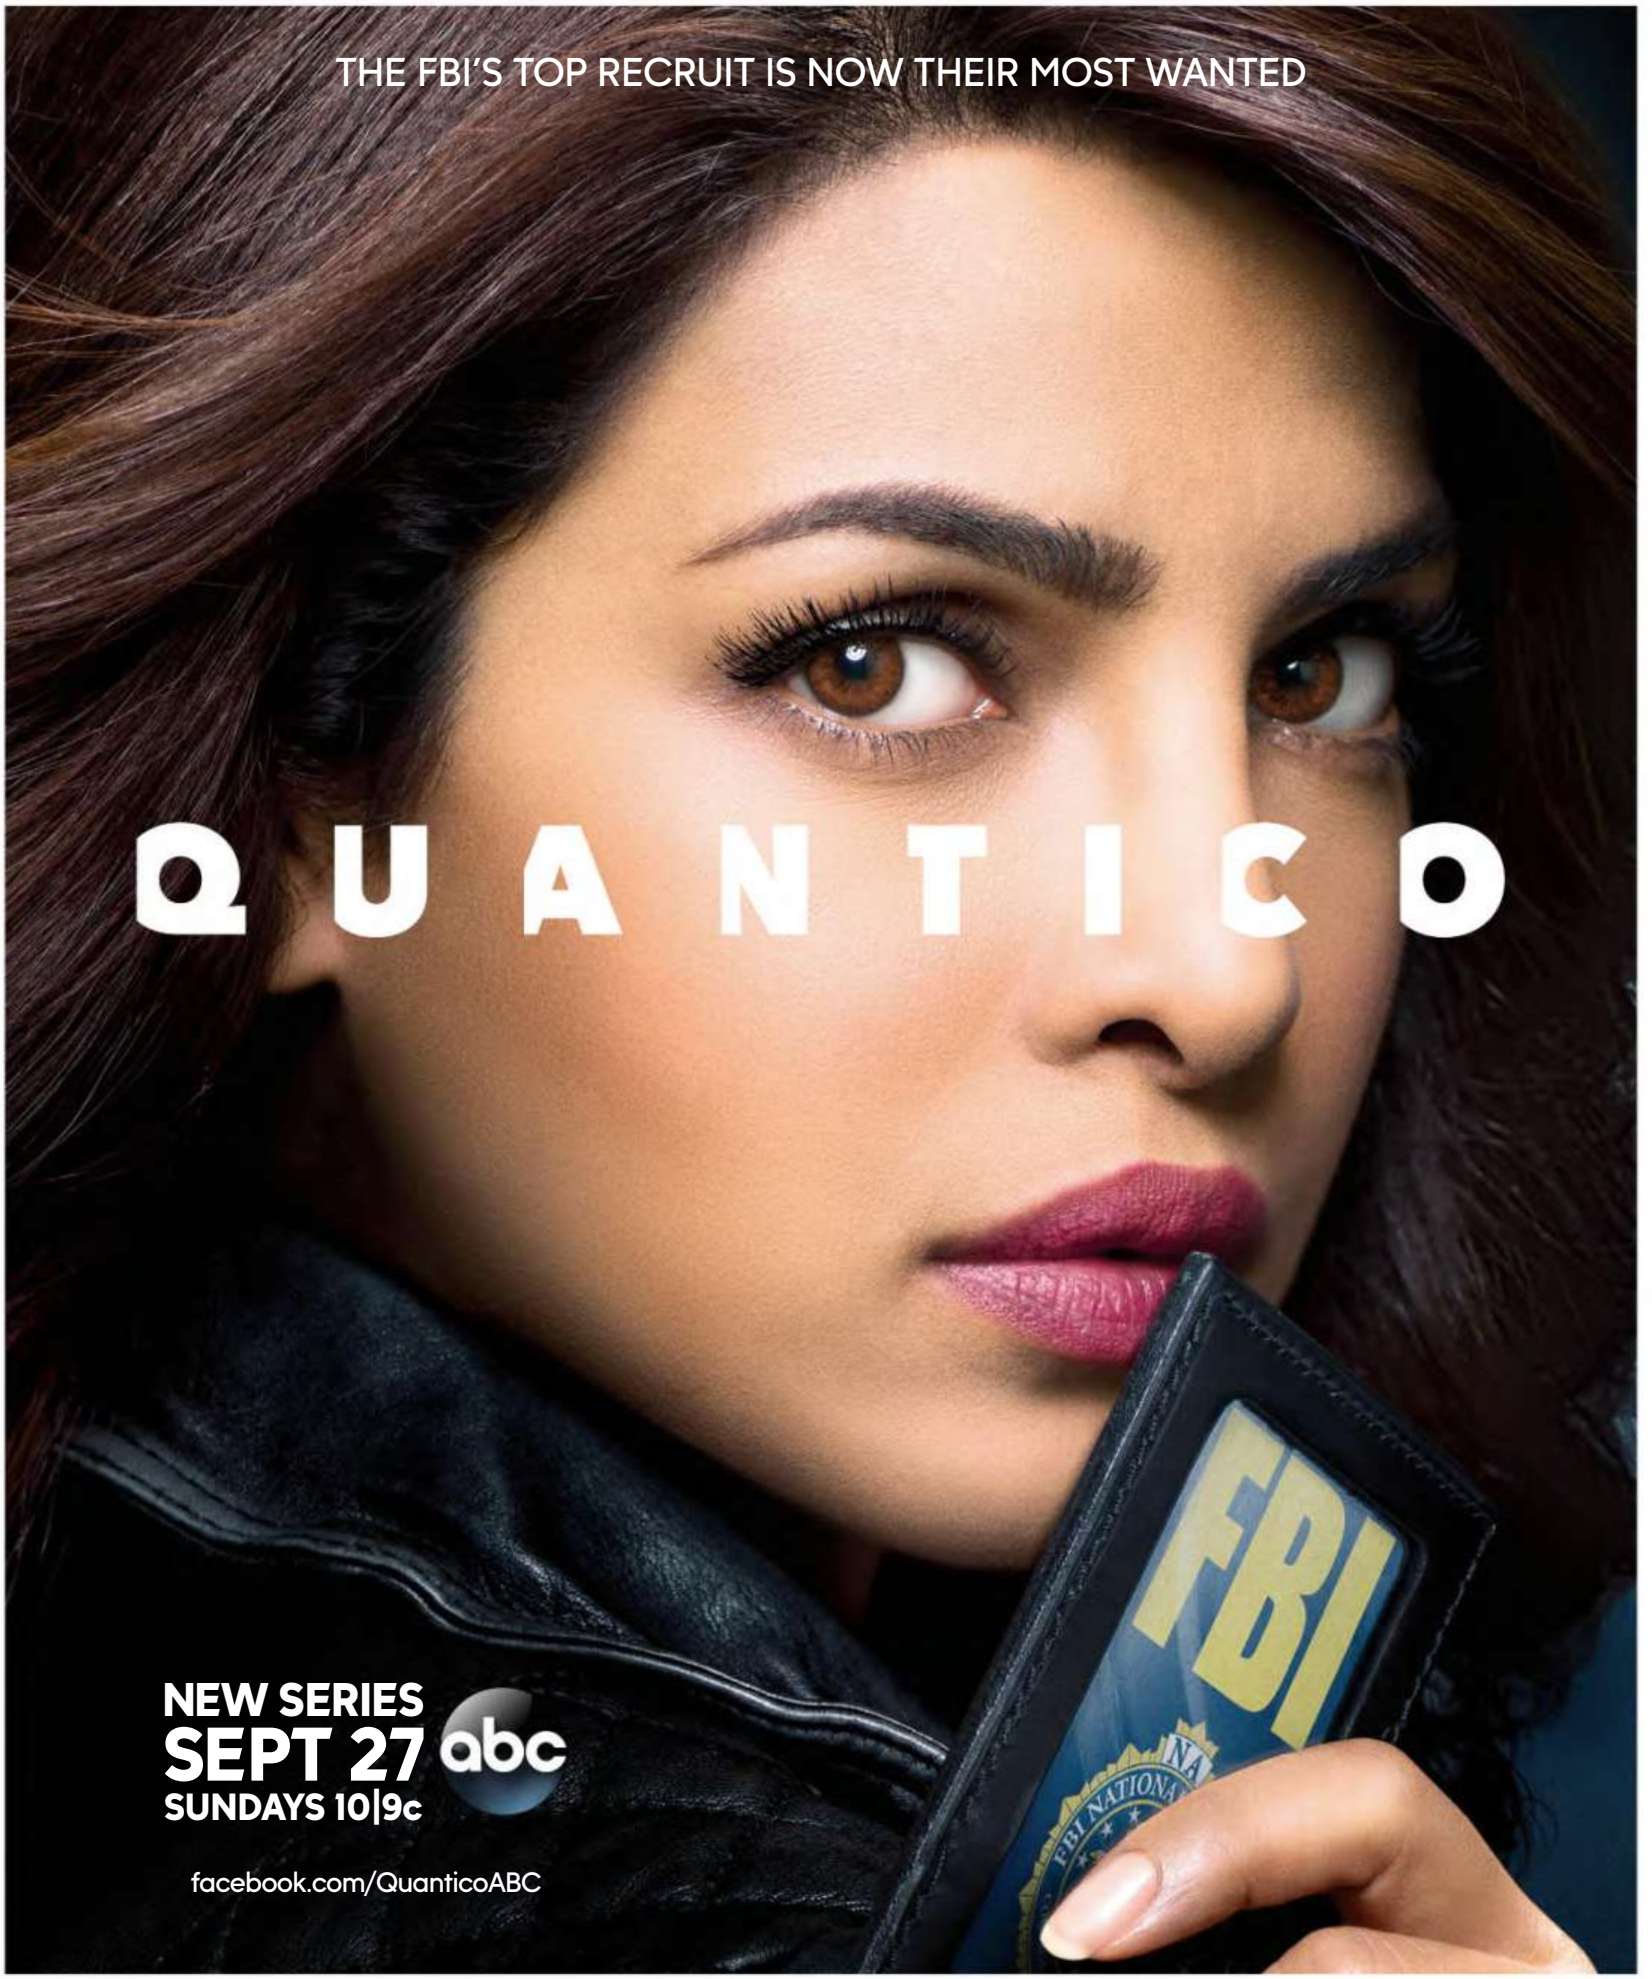

The first thing we did was invest in beautiful white shutters. That may not sound like much, but the shutters gave a bunch of cold red brick buildings a feeling of warmth. We painted the hallways, sanded and stained the floors, kept the vacant apartments immaculately clean, and landscaped the grounds. We also ran beautiful newspaper ads.

People came to check us out, and within a year, the buildings were 100 percent rented! I put the apartments up for sale, and the Prudent Real Estate Investment Trust bought them for $12 million – or approximately a $6 million profit for us. It was a huge return on a short-term investment.

After finishing college in 1968, I moved back home and went to work full-time for my father's building business in Queens and Brooklyn. But I soon realized that the profit margins were so low you had no choice but to pinch pennies, and there was no room for luxuries.

I entertained loftier dreams. And there was no way to implement them building houses in the outer boroughs. Manhattan is where I wanted to be. NE

EXCLUSIVE: ENQUIRER MEETS MAN SET

With the taste of a strawberry milkshake on his lips, Richard Glossip will be tied to this table and put to death on the flimsiest murder evidence

AS THE final seconds tick away before his almost-certain execution for murder in Oklahoma, a despondent Richard Glossip has spoken out to The National ENQUIRER to declare he's ready to meet his awful fate!

"I don't want people thinking that I want to die as a martyr, because I don't," Glossip said in his final interview from Death Row.

"I am ready to die to prevent this from happening to another innocent person!"

Glossip will receive a lethal injection on Sept. 16 for ordering the murder of his former boss – unless the governor of Oklahoma steps in to stay the execution.

However, Hollywood actress and activist Susan Sarandon has been pulling out all the stops to save the condemned man's life!

Susan – who won an Oscar for her portrayal of crusading, anti-death penalty nun Sister Helen Prejean in "Dead Man Walking" – is pressuring Oklahoma Governor Mary Fallin to halt the execution.

A death row cell

Mirror newspaper editor Christopher Bucktin

IN THE MEANTIME, Glossip spends the last days before he'll be strapped to a gurney and wheeled into the death chamber confined to a cramped concrete cell in front of a flickering television in McAlester, Okla.

He was moved to the Oklahoma State Penitentiary's grim H-Unit, which houses Death Row, on Aug. 15, and sits just yards from the room where he will breathe his last.

"The worst thing is, they took away my music," Glossip told British journalist Christopher Bucktin of his stark surroundings.

In the wake of his interview with Bucktin, on assignment for The Mirror newspaper, Glossip can now only receive limited visits from family, clergy and lawyers.

In a world exclusive, Bucktin went behind bars to meet 52-year-old Glossip, who has

MARCH 1996
Richard Glossip was hired as night manager at the Best Budget Inn in Oklahoma City.

JANUARY 6, 1997
Owner Barry Van Treese was beaten to death – Justin Sneed admitted killing him.

APRIL 1998
After a plea deal, Sneed testified that he was put up to the murder by Glossip.

JULY 31
Glossip was found guilty and sentenced to death. Sneed got a life sentence.

JULY 2001
State Court of Criminal Appeals reversed Glossip's conviction, ordered a new trial.

APRIL 2004
Sneed changed testimony at the retrial, but Glossip was again convicted and sentenced to death.

been dreading his execution since he was first jailed in 1998.

"It was a bizarre and deeply disturbing experience – and helped me understand why campaigners like Sarandon are fighting to save this man's life," Bucktin said.

GLOSSIP WAS convicted of first-degree murder for ordering the hit that killed his boss – based on the testimony of the man who actually committed the murder.

Justin Sneed, a handyman at the hotel where the two men worked, was able to avoid execution himself by cutting a deal with the state and fingering Glossip.

When Sneed was 19, he confessed to police that on the morning of Jan. 6, 1997, he beat Barry Van Treese to death, claiming Glossip put him up to it.

However, there is no physical evidence corroborating Sneed's story.

"When Glossip shuffled in, hands shackled, bent at the waist and wearing prison-issue clothing, he didn't look like the heinous individuals sharing death row with him," Bucktin said.

While he seemed defeated by the judicial system, Glossip showed little fear to our reporter, stunning Bucktin with his final pronouncement of innocence.

"It is just crazy for this to be happening in this country, but if I have to do my part to stop this (from happening)

Glossip is slated to be injected with a deadly poison.

ALL NEW!

Your HEALTH

NEWS YOU CAN ALWAYS USE!

BY DR. STUART FISCHER & LAURIE MILLER

NOTHING TO SNIFF AT!

FOR chronic-stress sufferers, reducing anxiety levels is key to staying healthy. One successful strategy is aromatherapy. An aroma can be released through a diffuser, which can be as simple as adding a few drops of liquid in the shower, or adding vital oils to boiling water. One popular oil is bergamot, which is derived from the skin of a citrus fruit and can help alleviate insomnia, headaches and pain. Other successful solutions contain lemon, which provides mental clarity, and tension-reducing geranium oil.

We'll drink to this!

A FEW glasses of alcohol a day is okay, but don't get too tipsy for your age! What was once considered "moderate" drinking transitions to heavier alcohol consumption as you get older. While wine is reportedly good for the heart, the American Heart Association doesn't want seniors swilling their lives away for medicinal purposes! It suggests one to two drinks a day for men, and one drink daily for women. That drink can be one 12-oz. beer, or 4 ounces of wine, or 1.5 ounce of 80-proof spirits. Don't be the one out of five people over 65 dangerously over the limit!

A better breast CANCER TEST!

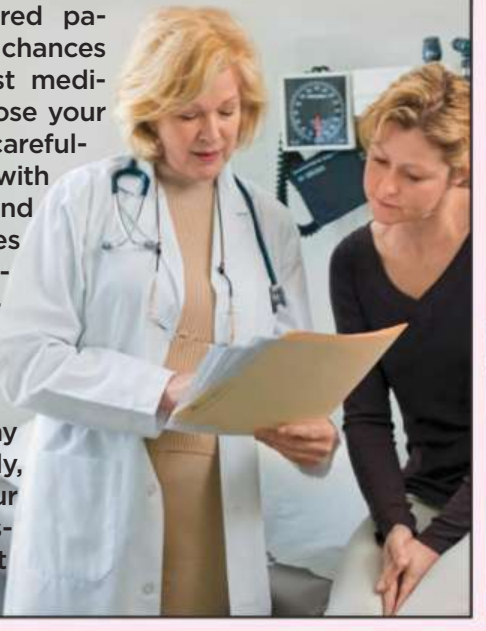

A BREAKTHROUGH new blood test can identify which breast cancer patients are most likely to suffer a relapse after surgery. The test detects any remaining cancer cells that have resisted therapy by pinpointing dangerous DNA in the blood stream. The test has already allowed doctors to catch recurring cancer an average of eight months before any other signs emerged!

FALL HAIR CARE

SUMMER fun brings damaged hair in autumn. It's important to take steps to restore it. If your hair feels dry and crunchy, use an intense hydrating cream weekly. Salt, sun and chlorine can turn your hair color brassy. To restore color, head to a salon for a gloss or glaze treatment that will bring back your original hue. Beat frizz by subbing out your regular styling products for straightening creams that fill in your hair's cuticles. Then moisturize, moisturize, moisturize with conditioner. You'll see quick and lustrous results!

MAKE YOUR DOCTOR VISITS BETTER!

BEING an empowered patient improves your chances of getting the best medical care possible. Choose your health insurance plan carefully. For instance, a plan with a higher premium and lower deductible makes more sense for someone with a chronic condition, while a high deductible plan with a lower monthly premium could save a healthy person bundles. Finally, communicate with your doctor and ask questions to get the most out of your visit.

GET ENHANCED TO THE CORE!

YOU'LL experience hardcore workouts, intensity and – most importantly – results, when you enhance your workout with Xenadrine CORE! This rapid release capsule is packed with ingredients like Gotu Kola, Perilla Seed Extract and caffeine anhydrous, which provide an electrifying sensation that'll keep your energy level up. CORE also has Caraway Seed Extract with unsaturated fatty acids, supercharged Forskolin and extract from Green Coffee Beans to promote effective weight loss! Available at GNC Live Well Stores for $39.99 and bodybuilding.com for just $38.75.

ENQUIRER HOW TO...

TELL IF YOUR HUSBAND IS GAY

IF THERE'S less heat in the bedroom ... the man in your life may be more interested in other men!

"At least four million American couples are in marriages where the man is actually gay," said Bonnie Kaye, M.Ed., author of "The Gay Husband Checklist." She said she's counseled more than 100,000 women whose husbands prefer hunks.

Here are potential signs that your spouse isn't interested in the woman of the house:

HIS SEXUAL DESIRES HAVE CHANGED!

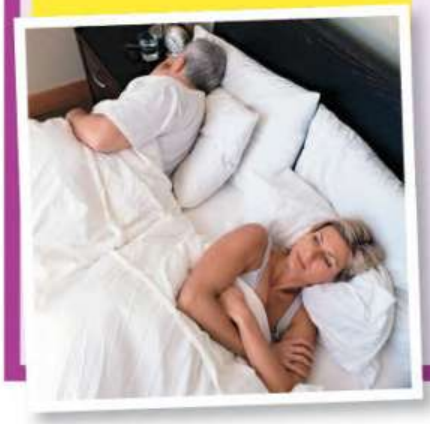

New sexual demands could mean he's transferring non-traditional desires into your bedroom.

"You'd be hard-pressed to find a lot of straight men stimulated by anal sex," explained Bonnie. "Combine it with avoiding traditional sex, and you have a clear warning sign."

THE SEX AIN'T WHAT IT USED TO BE

If he loses interest in sex or his performance becomes mechanical, then his head may be somewhere else.

"A guy in his 20s can fake anything," said Bonnie. "But if the passion fades too fast, you have legitimate concerns."

HE SPENDS LONG PERIODS OF TIME ONLINE

Men looking to satisfy sexual desires outside the home often turn to the Internet for gay porn or same-sex dating sites. They'll hide their history, too.

"Put spyware on their phone and computer," advised Bonnie. "Play dirty because they're not being honest with you."

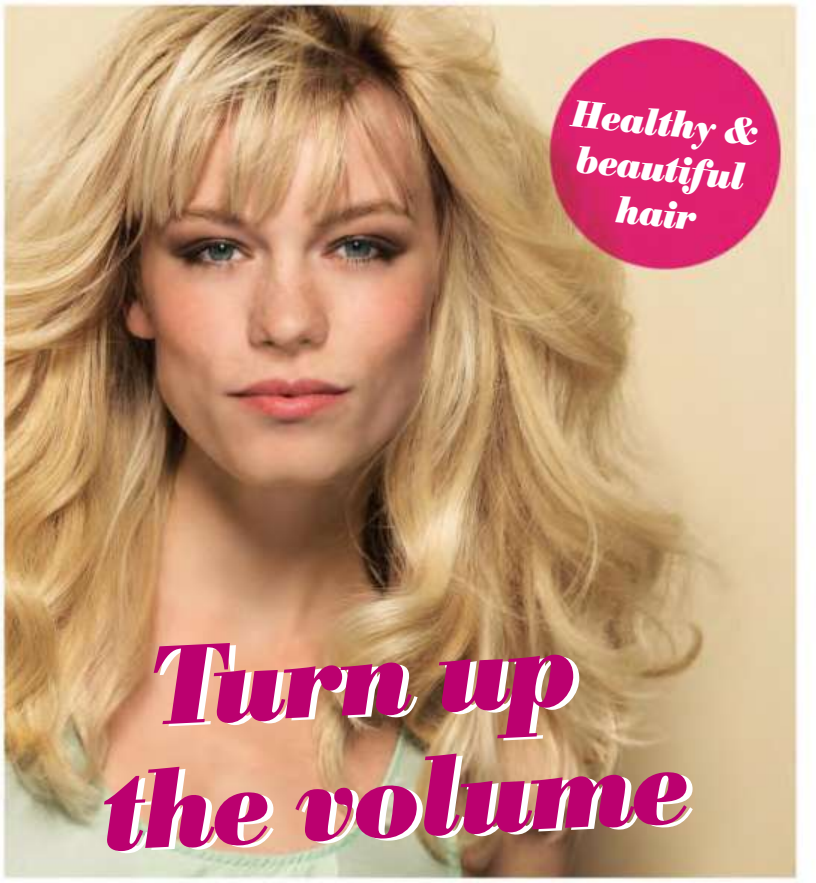

HE'S MORE INTERESTED IN MALE FRIENDS THAN YOU

You might be relieved that your hubby is with a buddy and not a babe ... but is he sharing more than beer with the boys?

"Be especially concerned if he focuses on one particular guy," said Bonnie. "If he doesn't have a lot of other friends, that's a red flag."

HE SEEMS FLIRTY WITH OTHER MEN

If your man lavishes praise on other men – especially those he barely knows – it's a sign his interest goes beyond friendship.

JOAN RIVERS COVER-UP

"laryngoscopies" were performed on Joan, although Dr. Cohen had insisted to investigators that only one "laryngoscopy" was performed.

It was after the third – and last – procedure that Joan's heart stopped beating, and she slipped into the coma from which she never recovered.

DR. WECHT TOLD The ENQUIRER the medical examiner's office should have overruled the family's decision not to have an autopsy performed because of their Jewish faith.

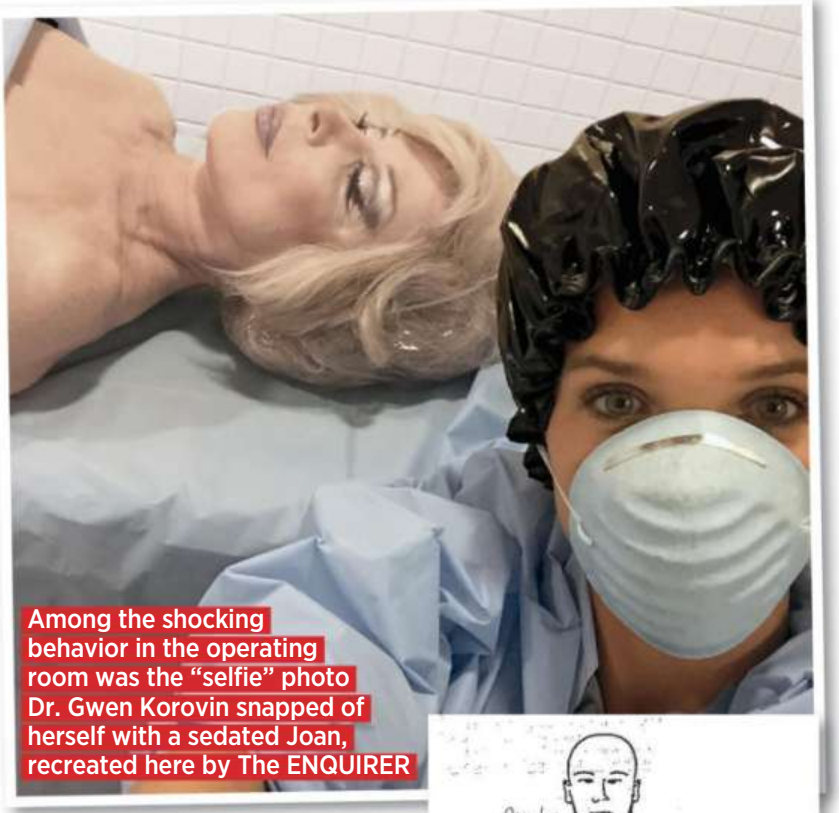

"I question why the medical examiner acquiesced into going along with the family's request, especially when you have a death occurring like this in an unexpected nature during elective surgery," he said. "This is a case where an autopsy has to be done!"

He pointed to the fact that doctors pumped 120 mg of the powerful anesthetic propofol into Joan. "That's a lot of propofol," he told The ENQUIRER.

"Propofol was one of the drugs involved in Michael Jackson's death, and I believe that really gets to the matter of the case."

Joan during an earlier procedure

Among the shocking behavior in the operating room was the "selfie" photo Dr. Gwen Korovin snapped of herself with a sedated Joan, recreated here by The ENQUIRER

In another disturbing twist, data logs from the anesthesia monitor used on Joan – a Mindray Datascope Passport V – are mysteriously missing, and would have contained crucial information!

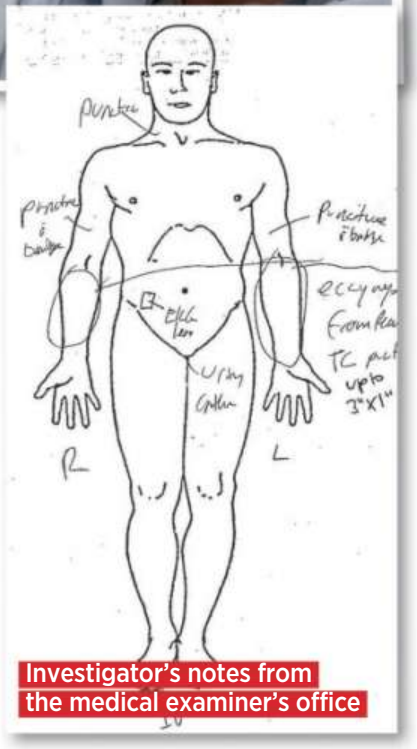

The medical examiner asked Yorkville Endoscopy to turn over those data logs during its investigation.

But Tricia Dougherty, director of operations for the clinic, told the M.E. that not only were the files deleted following Joan's procedure, but the device was sent to "outside IT consultants two days after" the surgery to fix a "persistent software error."

The M.E. noted in his report that "the device used during the procedure was not sequestered after the procedure," allowing the center to conduct the mysterious software fix.

"This has nonsense written all over it," Danno told The ENQUIRER.

"Let's say Joan didn't die. Then it's ridiculous to suggest those data logs would have been deleted because that data is the very reason you're doing the procedure to begin with.

Investigator's notes from the medical examiner's office

"The data would be reviewed by another doctor to make sure things went well.

"The data would also be kept for insurance purposes. Unless, of course, the center reviewed the data and realized, 'We screwed up. Let's get rid of this evidence before the authorities ask for it.'"

Indeed, it wasn't until Sept. 18, or two full weeks after Joan's death, that the M.E. asked for the data logs, according to the files obtained by The ENQUIRER.

Danno added: "The center sent the machine out for repair? Give me a break! That machine should have been tagged for evidence and sent to the M.E.'s office since a person died.

"It was evidence of a possible crime. You just don't say, 'I'm going to randomly send it out to IT people for a data scrubbing.'

"To me, the M.E. should have gone to the center, sealed off the room and taken control of all the equipment. But they didn't, so it gave the center a huge opportunity to clean up the mess."

JOAN'S DAUGHTER, Melissa, sued the clinic and doctors in January, declaring: "The level of medical mismanagement, incompetency, disrespect and outrageous behavior is shocking and, frankly, almost incomprehensible."

According to the reports, Joan's doctors "failed to identify deteriorating vital signs," and committed fatal errors while trying to revive her.

Renowned defense attorney Tony Brooklier told The ENQUIRER: "There's certainly enough; the Manhattan District Attorney is likely taking a very serious look at it."

Michael Cardoza, a defense attorney who has tried over 40 murder trials, added: "There certainly should be an investigation into whether this is criminal negligence!"

When contacted by The ENQUIRER, the Manhattan District Attorney's Office refused to comment on whether it is conducting a criminal probe. NE

MINUTE-BY-MINUTE: JOAN'S TERRIFYING LAST MOMENTS BEFORE SHE FLATLINED!

FOR the first time, The National ENQUIRER can reveal the minute-by-minute breakdown of the botched medical procedure that took the life of beloved comedian Joan Rivers. According to documents from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the New York City Medical Examiner's Office, here is the tragic timeline on Aug. 28, 2014:

9:09 a.m. THE KNOCKOUT DRUG

Joan is given the 100 milligrams of the powerful drug propofol.

9:09-9:15 a.m. CAMERA DOWN THROAT, MORE DRUGS

A thin tube with a lighted camera is passed through her nose, down her throat and larynx to view the upper digestive tract. She's given an additional 20 mgs of propofol.

9:15-9:28 a.m. EARLY SIGNS OF DANGER

Several biopsies of the esophagus are taken and the tube is removed. Joan begins to have trouble breathing.

9:28 a.m. PANIC AS SHE BEGINS HEART ATTACK

A second tube (or laryngoscope) is shoved down her throat and she begins to go into full cardiac arrest.

9:30 a.m. DESPERATE ATTEMPT TO SAVE HER

The tube is removed and cardiopulmonary resuscitation is performed.

9:38 a.m. SHOCK TO THE SYSTEM

Joan is given 1 mg of adrenaline (epinephrine).

10:00 a.m. BROUGHT BACK TO 'LIFE'

Joan is resuscitated.

10:04 a.m. RUSHED TO HOSPITAL

She is taken to Mount Sinai Hospital.

1:15 p.m. (on Sept. 4) THE TRAGIC END

She is pronounced dead, having never regained consciousness.

DOOMED ON DEATH ROW

again, I will," the shackled Glossip told Bucktin under the din of an industrial air conditioner.

"I am not afraid to die, but if I do, in my heart and my head I know I was taken from this Earth for something I had no part in."

MEANWHILE, SUSAN has been giving interviews, posting on Facebook and sending emails asking people to sign a petition to stop the execution. Susan said: "Rather than accept a life sentence in exchange for a guilty plea, he put his faith in justice – and justice let him down."

Susan appeared on "Dr. Phil" to put pressure on Governor Fallin, who has the authority to delay the execution by 60 days.

"Fallin argued that (Glossip) had two trials and appeals and a full clemency board hearing (all) ruling his conviction and sentencing are just," said Susan. "But her argument is grossly inaccurate."

Glossip behind bars

Susan read a letter from the condemned man on the air. "'If the worst happens, I want my death not to be in vain,'" Susan said, her voice cracking.

"There's no forensic evidence," declared Sister Helen, who joined Susan on the show. "His dying is wrong!"

Top legal experts consulted by The ENQUIRER concur.

EVEN THE DAUGHTER of Glossip's accuser has cast grave doubt on her father's damning testimony.

"For a couple of years now, my father has been talking to me about recanting his original testimony," O'Ryan Justine Sneed wrote in a letter. "I feel his conscience is getting to him."

But it may be too little too late for Glossip, who defiantly told our reporter his death will not be without purpose.

"When I am on the table, I really would like Governor Fallin and all the people who put me there to witness my execution. "I'd look at them and say, 'Look innocence in the eyes before you murder it.' That way, my blood ends up on their hands. That's what I want my last words to be.

"No man should die for a crime they didn't commit." NE

THE LAST SUPPER

Like all condemned men, Richard Glossip is entitled to a last meal of his choice, and he's had 17 years to consider his order. The meal will be delivered to his Death Row cell between 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. on Sept. 15, the day before his execution.

THE MENU:

- A chicken-fried steak from Chili's
- Two orders of fish and chips from Long John Silver's
- A Wendy's "Baconator" and a Strawberry Frosty

Auntie Julia set up sequel for Evan & Emma

JULIA Roberts initiated her niece Emma's reunion with ex-sparring partner Evan Peters!

Their turbulent romance, which included Emma getting arrested for a domestic violence incident after a fight with Evan, ended in June, but soon after "Emma moaned to her Auntie Julia about how much she missed Evan," a source told The ENQUIRER.

So Julia urged Evan to reconnect, and even hosted a dinner for the pair. "Emma and Evan are stronger than ever – and they have Julia to thank for playing Cupid!" said the insider.

ROBIN & SEAN PENN PALS AGAIN!

KICKED to the curb by their significant others this summer, Robin Wright and Sean Penn are considering reconciliation!

Charlize Theron froze out Sean in July, while Robin's romance with Ben Foster hit an iceberg in August. "Now they're starting to realize what they missed in each other," a source told The ENQUIRER.

Sean, 55, and Robin, 49, are a little embarrassed about failing with much younger lovers – Charlize is 40 while Ben is just 34. "They laugh about how they blew it, trying to keep up with the kids," said a source close to the exes.

Sean and Robin, who divorced in 2010, have two children. The source added: "They consider their family the biggest success of their lives. You can definitely see them giving it another go!"

ROSEMARY KENNEDY TRAGEDY!

IN A major cover story, People magazine claimed to have unearthed the Kennedy family's "darkest secret" – JFK's sister Rosemary was lobotomized and abandoned. But The National ENQUIRER first exposed the tragic story way back in 1993!

That year, The ENQUIRER obtained world exclusive photos of the Kennedy daughter who hadn't been seen in nearly 20 years! Her famous family tried to hide her away after her father, Joe Kennedy, forced her to undergo an experimental brain operation that went horribly wrong!

We reported that Rosemary led a simple life in a one-story brick home at St. Coletta's School, a facility for the mentally disabled.

JFK's oldest sister was born mildly disabled, but after the surgery at age 23 in 1941, she was left severely mentally disabled and partially paralyzed on the left side. She had to be tended to by a nurse and aides, who often took her for walks on the grounds of the Jefferson, Wis., facility.

In 1983, the Kennedys donated $1 million to the school.

"Rosemary is very sweet," a close source told The ENQUIRER back then. "She's a very nice person. She's just limited in what she can do. She's able to hold a conversation, though she does babble on some. The nuns work with her all the time. She gets physical therapy, and they work on her reading and talking skills. Otherwise, she passes her days inside her home watching TV or being read to."

'LOVE BUG' DEAN'S BRUSH WITH DANGER!

DAREDEVIL Dean Jones drove to stardom at the wheel of a Volkswagen Beetle named Herbie, "The Love Bug" – but his career almost crashed and burned when he came this close to wrecking it!

The beloved actor, who died Sept. 1 at age 84 after a battle with Parkinson's disease, had a terrifying brush with danger while maneuvering the wacky auto in French traffic.

"Once, there was this large piazza in Paris," recalled Dean, who played race car driver Jim Douglas in the string of Disney "Herbie" films that began in 1968.

"I took off across it, and it's full of traffic – cars coming from every direction. But I thought they were stunt drivers!

"I got to the other side and stopped. I said to the director, 'Some of those stunt drivers were really coming dangerously close.' He said, 'They weren't stunt drivers. This is just regular Parisian traffic!' I was shocked!" NE

Kelsey's revenge!

KELSEY Grammer lost his Malibu dream house to real housewife of Beverly Hills' Camille in their 2011 divorce – but he's having the last laugh as she slashes the price on this great estate!

Camille seems to have lost her horse sense, as the nearly five-acre equestrian compound has gone from a $17.5 million asking price to a little under $14 million.

Enjoy roaming the four bedrooms and six bathrooms, or relaxing in the lavish home theater. You can also ride your horses around the mansion's swimming pool, tennis court and lily pond!

Weight LIMIT!

JONAH Hill's film career is getting grounded because he's too fat to fly!

"Nobody wants to risk casting an actor who can't fit into an airplane seat," said an industry veteran.

"Jonah better keep losing weight," added the insider, "because you have to be a star like Leonardo DiCaprio to get loaned a private jet!"

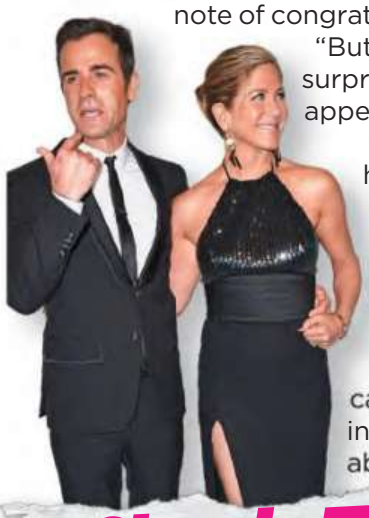

Goodbye, gift!

BRAD Pitt sent ex-wife Jennifer Aniston a wedding present that's already rocked her marriage to Justin Theroux!

"Brad bought the newlyweds a big Baccarat Crystal vase filled with sunflowers, and sent it over with a note of congratulations," said an insider.

"But Justin is definitely no fan, so it'll be surprising if the vase ever makes another appearance inside their home!"

That's a bummer for Brad, who was hoping that a happily-married Jennifer would help the public forget his famous breakup with the "Friends" star – and help stop rumors about Brad's own troubled marriage to Angelina Jolie.

"But," the source added, "that vase came just from Brad, so we're wondering if Angelina even knows about it!"

Piggy pals!

MILEY Cyrus and George Clooney are tighter than pigs in a blanket over their love for oinkers!

The pop tart has been seeing a lot of the movie star ever since George discovered she was keeping piggies on her horse ranch.

"George loves being around pot-bellied pigs," said a source. "But his wife, Amal, doesn't want one in the house. George saw Miley had pigs on her Instagram account, and so he knew where to go to get his pig fix!"

Now he's bonding with Miley and her pet pig, Bubba Sue – which could pay off big for the singer.

"George loves Miley's outrageous style," said the insider, "and now he wants her in one of his upcoming movies!"

Classic ENQUIRER

TOM Cruise and Katie Holmes were on the brink of breaking up this week in 2006 – but no one would've known without The National ENQUIRER! We had the scoop on how Tom was bombing in his personal life, with Katie moving him to a separate bedroom just weeks before the couple married in a Scientologist ceremony!

Criminal casting

STEVE Buscemi is set to play a ladies man – with film producers looking to cast him as real-life prison escapee David Sweat!

The con made headlines after he escaped the Clinton Correctional Facility in New York with his doomed prison pal, Richard Matt.

The story should make a great movie, with the escapees assisted by Sweat's lover, Joyce Mitchell.

This week's fashion hits and misses!

You look stunning!

JULIANNE HOUGH
She should be dancing! Julianne's a gem in Monique Lhuillier's floral print fit-and-flare frock with blue Stuart Weitzman 'Nudist' sandals.

DIANE KRUGER
Hats off to Diane for kicking off the Venice Film Festival in style! "The Bridge" beauty glows in a semi-sheer bodysuit and pleated print skirt by Thakoon.

JENNA DEWAN-TATUM
From her perfect pins to her sexy shoulders, the "Step Up" star is a stand-out in a pretty red Parker dress!

RIHANNA
The pop princess goes bubblegum! Pink heels match her pink Vivienne Westwood lacquered lace corset dress.

ELIZABETH BANKS
Strappy sandals amp up the glam of Elizabeth's darling Dolce & Gabbana floral embellished dress.

KAT GRAHAM
Put a stake in it! "The Vampire Diaries" dish drowns in color.

... But you've gotta be kidding!

LILY COLLINS
If only she'd looked in the "Mirror Mirror!" Lily's bo-ho is a no-no.

CRYPTOGRAM QUOTES

FAMOUS QUOTES FROM YOUR FAVORITE PEOPLE

Cryptograms are coded messages. To solve the Cryptogram, each coded letter must be replaced by the answer letter in the box overhead. When you solve the code for a letter, write the answer letter in the box everywhere the coded letter appears. Look for common words and letter patterns to break the code. Words like AND, I, THE and A are found frequently. Common word endings are ING, S and E.

ARIES MARCH 21-APRIL 20

The less said, the better, especially in the workplace this week. You can avoid a lot of stress and drama with co-workers if you just stay away from the water-cooler gossip. It's pointless and contributes nothing to your career.
Lucky Numbers: 3, 6, 15

TAURUS APRIL 21-MAY 21

You will feel like you are the only person in your relationship communicating. Nonetheless, you need to continue to speak up and share your truth. In time, your mate will come around and reveal his or her thoughts, too.
Lucky Numbers: 2, 3, 12

GEMINI MAY 22-JUNE 21

You could easily misinterpret someone's good intentions. His or her actions could be taken as romantic overtures. Don't assume anything unless those feelings are blatantly expressed. Otherwise you could wear your heart on your sleeve and get hurt.
Lucky Numbers: 2, 5, 7

CANCER JUNE 22-JULY 22

Be open to a talk that you're afraid to have. It will turn out better than you imagined and result in a true meeting of the minds. Whew! Now you can move confidently to the next stage of your relationship.
Lucky Numbers: 5, 12, 20

LEO JULY 23-AUG. 23

Wrong way, pal! It seems you keep hitting the same brick wall and can't find a way around it. Perhaps you should try a new solution to this old problem. Sometimes changing your course is all you need to advance a level.
Lucky Numbers: 5, 9, 12

VIRGO AUG. 24-SEPT. 22

You deserve a break after a long week of hard work. Let someone else call the shots, make plans and treat you to a weekend of fun. Indulge a little! Someone else's feedback may throw you off; explore whether it has merit.
Lucky Numbers: 5, 14, 23

LIBRA SEPT. 23-OCT. 22

Your mind will be filled with great ideas this week. Jot them down so you can go back over them when you have downtime. Many of these ideas are valid and could be decent money-makers. In a relationship? Let your extra-romantic side emerge this weekend.
Lucky Numbers: 3, 8, 17

SCORPIO OCT. 23-NOV. 21

You will soon see a daunting situation in a new light. You have the ability to change it for the better and earn the respect of others along the way. A new relationship adds sparkle to your weekend.
Lucky Numbers: 5, 32, 41

SAGITTARIUS NOV. 22-DEC. 21

A career opportunity is presented. In fact, you may have to choose between two options … and both are good ones! You can't make a wrong choice, so go with the one you feel the most passion for. Your financial picture also brightens.
Lucky Numbers: 8, 10, 29

CAPRICORN DEC. 22-JAN. 20

You mean well but a gesture you make is taken the wrong way. Even though you did nothing intentional to hurt someone, you may have to apologize. Trust the people around you in the workplace. They've got your back.
Lucky Numbers: 4, 7, 12

AQUARIUS JAN. 21-FEB. 18

You can easily see the big picture but a few others in your circle cannot. It won't be easy trying to convince them that your way is the right way, but it's surely worth a try! The weekend looks inviting with a romantic dinner under the stars.
Lucky Numbers: 7, 25, 39

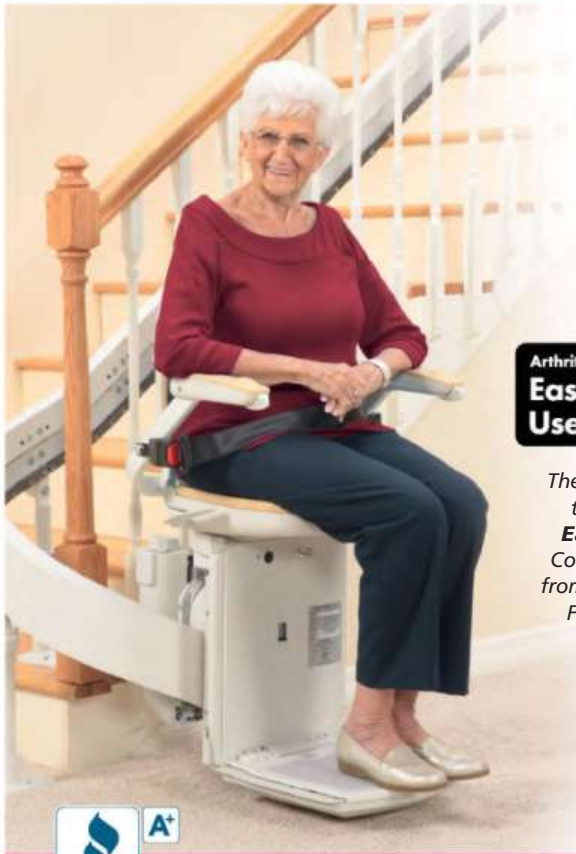

PISCES FEB. 19-MARCH 20

A pile of work or a list of chores has you down. Tackle what you can and leave the rest to a day when you feel more ambitious. Give yourself permission to play hooky for a day or two. You need a break.
Lucky Numbers: 5, 6, 24

A Holiday Centerpiece That Truly Says It All

For the first time ever, the Christmas artistry of Thomas Kinkade inspires a sculpted village scene at the center of a grand Always in Bloom® arrangement of hand-crafted flowers and greenery. Enhanced with over 20 LED lights, flickering candle "flames" and Thomas Kinkade narrating The Night Before Christmas, "The Lights of Christmas" Village Centerpiece will grace your home with cheer for years to come.

Designed to Delight in Every Way!

Measuring a full 18 inches wide, this grand centerpiece is a wonder to behold. Behind the sculpted village stand three tapered candle sculptures. Santa's sleigh and reindeer are attached to the front of the candles, so they appear to be soaring above the village. Seemingly alive with seasonal poinsettias, red roses, holly leaves, greenery and pine cones—all individually hand-made for true-to-life texture and color—our Always in Bloom® centerpiece rivals anything you might be able to find in a high-end flower shop. Reserve yours today at only $149.99*, payable in four installments of $37.50, one due before shipment. Your satisfaction is fully guaranteed, so don't wait. Order today!

Three candle sculptures sparkle with glitter and flicker with artificial flames.

HOW TO PLAY

You must fill in every empty square in the Sudoku grid. There's no right way of going about this, but there is only ever one solution. The big grid is split into nine mini-grids. There are nine rows running left to right and nine columns running down. In every row, you must have each of the numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9. These can be in any order. The same applies to columns and mini-grids: place every number 1 through 9 in each column and in each mini-grid.

CELEBRITY WORD MATCH

Find a word that can follow the word on the left and precede the word on the right. When you've filled in all the answers, the name of a celebrity can be read from top to bottom in one of the lines.

A Tribute to a Forever Love

Wolves mate for life, forming lasting bonds of love and part-nership. It's what inspired Carol Cavalaris to create this artwork of a pair of white wolves that is the centerpiece of "Kindred Spirits," a first-of-a-kind Native American-style heart-shaped dreamcatcher. The romantic artwork is showcased on real leather on an artist's resin frame resembling white birch. Real feathers, beads, and embellishments reminiscent of Native American-style jewelry designs complete the eye-catching design.

Thousands of Plastic Surgeons Could Go Out of Business by 2017!

"When Dr. Oz featured phytoceramides on his TV show, he didn't realize he might be responsible for putting thousands of doctors out of business."

By Steph Weller

NEW YORK: Plastic surgeons are angry. And for good reason. The U.S. launch of the new "face-lift pill", Dermex-P, might have them scrambling for new careers. Their "bread and butter" business; making older faces look young again, could go away tomorrow.

In a time when 50 is the new 30, the pressure to look younger is greater than ever. Perhaps this is why Americans spent over $12-billion on anti-aging products and procedures — just last year. A number that had doctors and cosmetic manufacturers doing a jig in 2014 — but "not for long!"

Doctor Oz Exposes Hollywood's "Age-Curing" Miracle to the World!

When TV's Doctor Oz featured phytoceramides (the key ingredient in Dermex-P) on his show, he didn't realize the damage he was doing. Everything that Doctor Oz said about the ingredient was true. "This is no 'old wives tale'. It's a scientific fact! The clinical tests are indisputable," said one industry insider. And that's the problem. It works too well! And that's exactly what has estheticians and the cosmetic industry so worried. That would mean products and services like facials, Botox® injections and other means of making yourself look younger could soon be obsolete.

According to Doctor Oz, a recent clinical study conducted at Osaka City University in Japan proved the effects of phytoceramides on 6 men and 27 women. Each had wrinkles, age lines and sagging skin conditions that made them look years older than they actually were. Typically, their skin was dry, inelastic, wrinkled and old-looking.

Real Stories, Real Results

"My husband left me for a younger woman last year and he took my self-esteem with him," says 50 year old Lydia S. of Tampa, Fl. "When I read an article about Dermex-P and how its main ingredient was clinically proven to restore a youthful appearance, I thought, "Why not?". Lydia goes on to say with a smile, "What they say is true, living well is the best revenge. I have my confidence back and am dating men half my age. My friends and family cannot believe the difference!"

54 year old Joan from Phoenix, Arizona says "After using Dermex-P for four weeks, I looked in the mirror and felt like a 30 year old with 24 years of experience!"

What Would You Choose...

The study concluded when administered daily, the phytoceramides used in Dermex-P would moisturize and hydrate old skin to identically mimic the skin of people in their early 20's. Phytoceramides reverse wrinkles through a process called elastase suppression and collagen production. Simply put, Dermex-P plumps away wrinkles using your body's own collagen. And keeps your skin moist and smooth much like a humidor keeps cigars fresh.

Not a Cream, Cover-up or Surgical Procedure

Dermex-P isn't a drug, a cosmetic, or a messy cream. Dermex-P is something completely different. There are no needles involved – you don't even need a prescription for it.

"9-out-of-10 users report; people accuse them of having surgery" says researcher, Joel Carson. Dermex-P actually youthens every cell in your body! Wrinkles fade, fine lines vanish and your skin is flooded with new moisture – from the inside out.

Doctors say Dermex-P is so effective, that in most cases, there's no reason for anyone to go "under the knife". It just works better! And because you take phytoceramides orally (through the mouth) instead of topically (on the skin), not only will the skin on your face look young – virtually every organ in your body gets younger too.

"I've seen some people start taking them and look like a different person just a month later!"

Says supplement manufacturer, Daniel Dembinski; "Doctor Oz was right! Phytoceramides are remarkable! I've seen some people start taking them and look like a different person just a month later. I know it sounds crazy but you can't argue with facts. The pill is a better, more effective method than anything I've seen."

Plastic surgeons aren't the only ones furious about the U.S. release of Dermex-P. Hollywood execs are nervous about the launch too.

Celebrities make their fortunes on their looks. It's what separates them from us. And today, the younger you look, the more acting jobs you get. Surgery and estheticians give celebs the edge over us mortal folk. But if everyone looked younger, Hollywood execs fear their stars may lose their appeal.

"It hydrates old skin to identically mimic the skin of people in their early 20's"

Until recently, unless your name was Angelina Jolie; or you were married to Donald Trump, you had no idea what phytoceramides were. But now with the public release of Dermex-P; phytoceramides are available to all-- and shockingly affordable too.

Aging is Inevitable, Wrinkles are Not!

According to top plastic surgeons, Dr. Shirley Madhere and Dr. Leif Rogers, phytoceramides work underneath your skin to reverse aging. It's instantly absorbed into the bloodstream, and is carried directly to the inner and outermost layers of your skin - restoring it on a cellular level. It just makes a lot more sense than other methods.

"This will undoubtedly have a tremendous impact on the future of cosmetic surgery. It has to.

Dermex-P is drastically cheaper in comparison. And it gives you shockingly similar results," says one successful Beverly Hill's surgeon. "The medical community is up in arms because the average cost of a facelift is about ten thousand dollars; and the recovery time is painful and can take as much as 2-3 weeks! We will soon start to see the trend steering away from medical procedures to a safer, more inexpensive solution like Dermex-P."

The distributor of Dermex-P is offering a 100% Risk-FREE 30-day trial supply to anyone who asks. They say, it's the best way for people to see for themselves how well it works. Try it for 30 days – if your wrinkles don't disappear from your entire face and neck, return the bottle, even if totally empty. You'll be completely refunded – no questions asked. But no one's promising this offer will stay open forever. Considering the demand for Dermex-P, the FREE trial supply could prove too costly for the company to keep up with. That's why it's important to call now before the FREE trial is no longer available.

We will also send you a FREE GIFT just for trying Dermex-P and of course you are backed by our unconditional 30 Day Money Back Guarantee on all of our products. It's that easy! Call 1-800-734-9755 now before this offer is closed forever.

This incredible Hulk is aptly named, but the 168-pound pit bull is a gentle giant who frolics with the toddler of New Hampshire breeders Marlon and Lisa Grennan. Hulk also lives with a Chihuahua who seems more nervous than usual!

TALL TAILS

(and itsy-bitsy ones too!)

Nature takes some odd turns as you'll see in some of our favorite amazing animal stories!

VAMPIRE KITTY

Here's one cat ready for Halloween! Loki has a set of protruding fangs that make her look like she's risen from the dead and ready to bite your neck. The vampy feline is really a sweet Siamese mix from a Burlington, Vt., shelter.

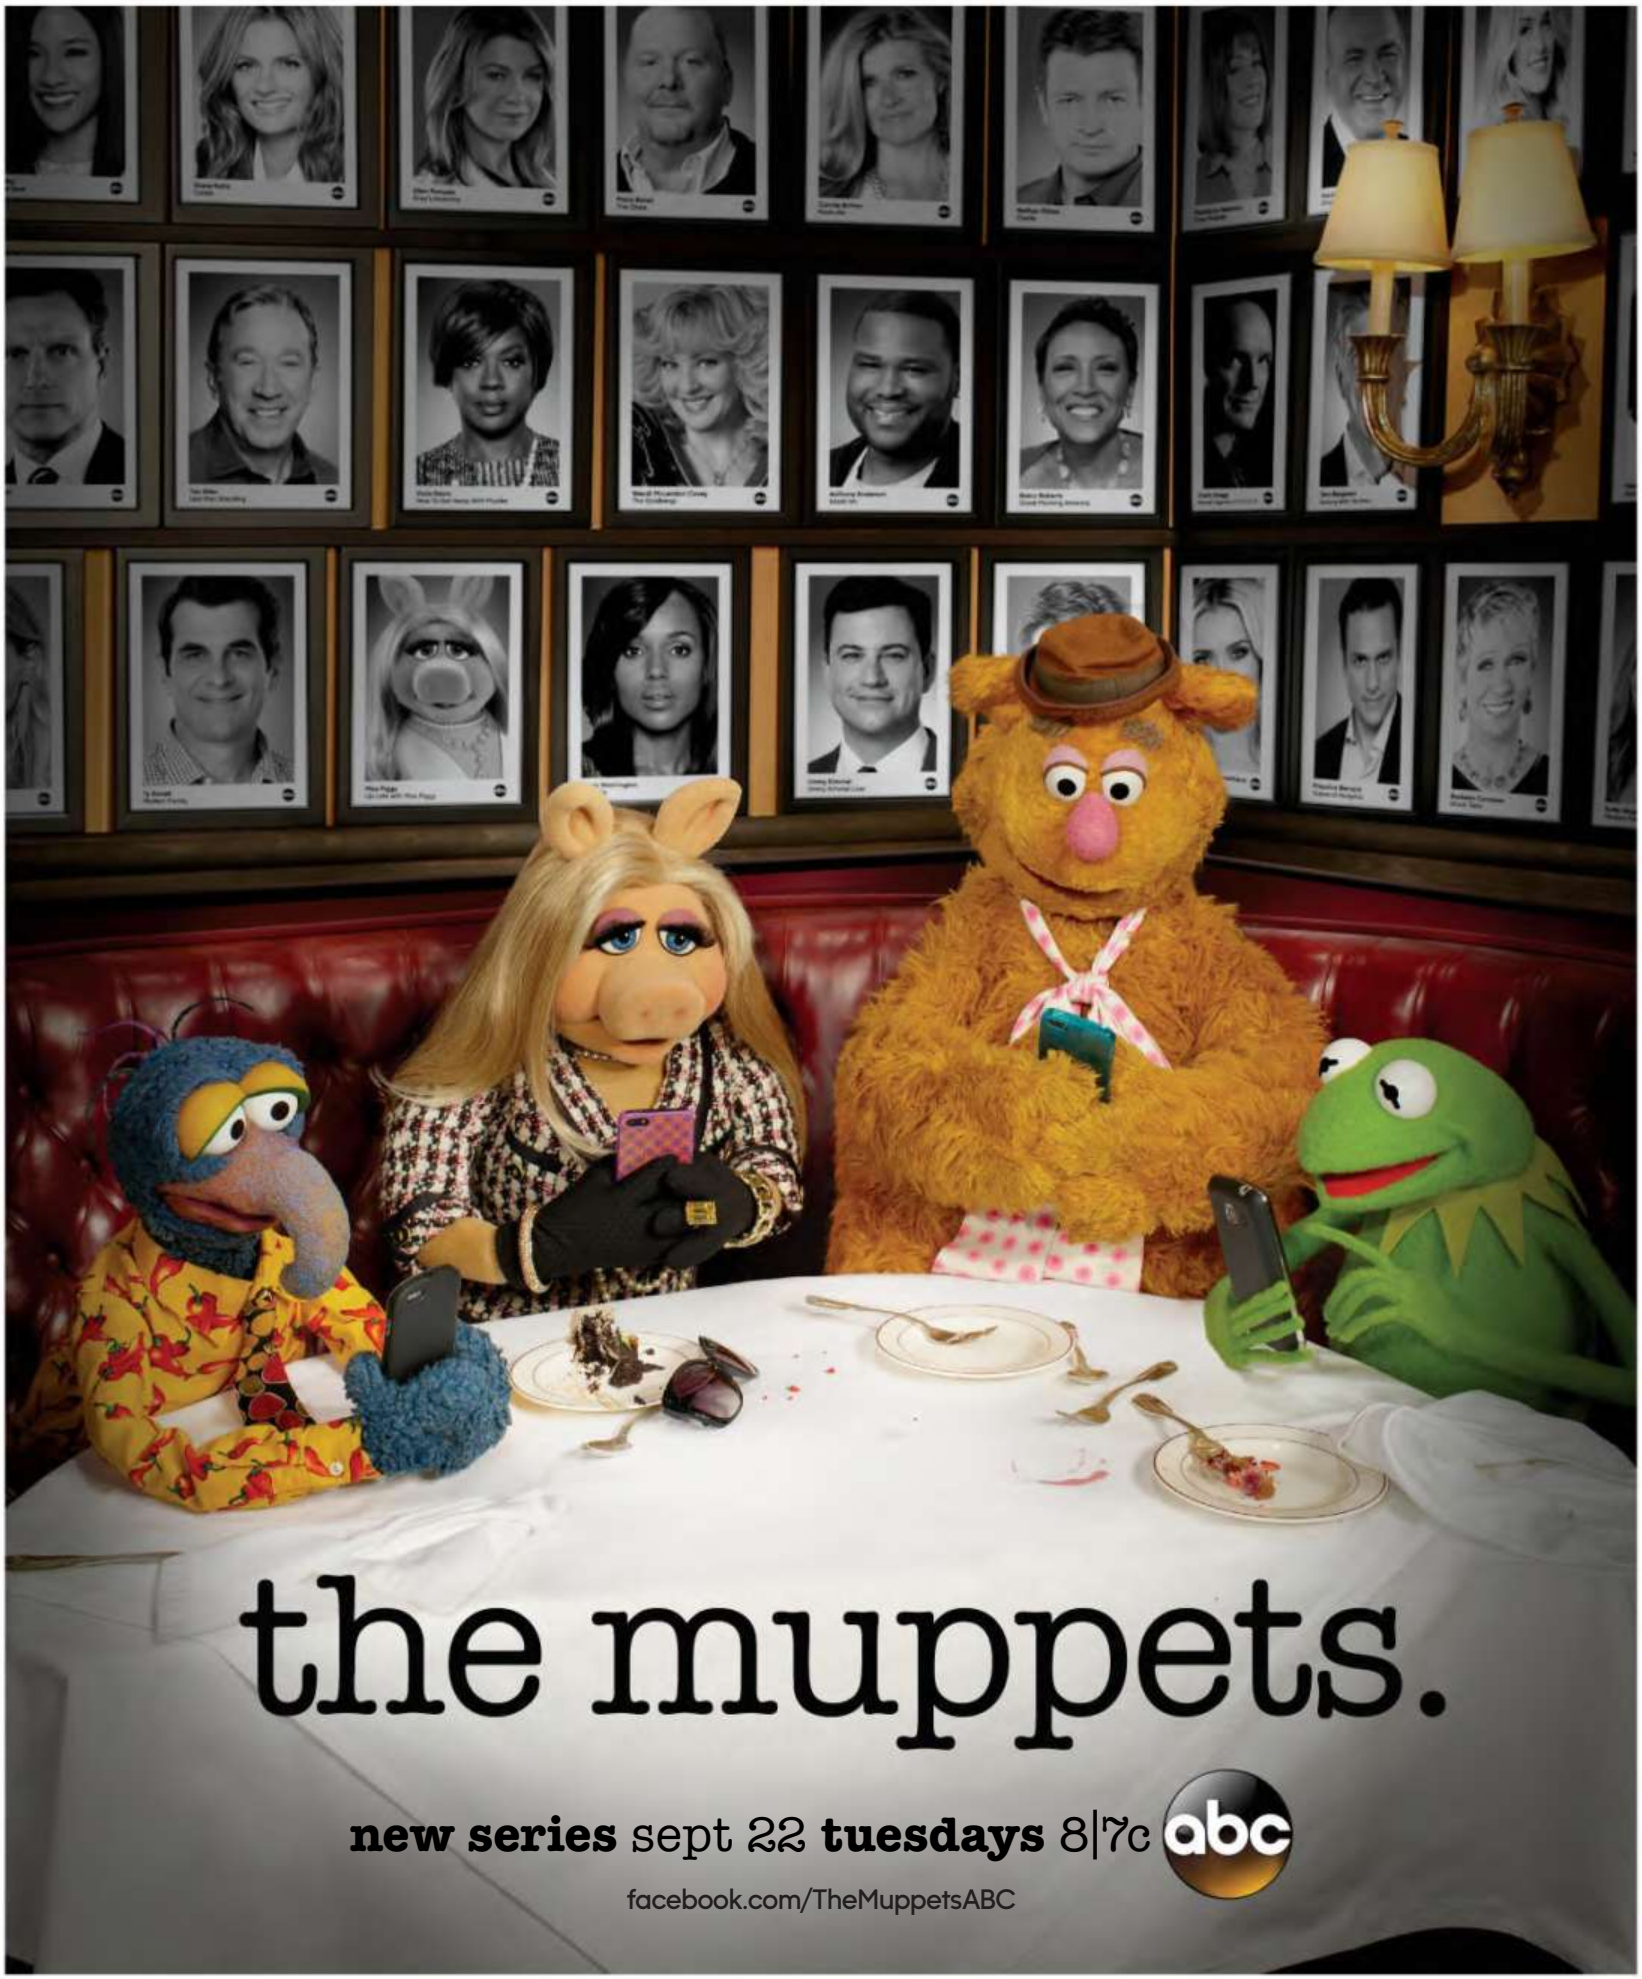

STABLE CONDITION

Pedro the Shetland pony can now look out at the world from his stall in the English town of Coldharbour Ward, where local kids came up with the "pedroscope" – after ruling out platform horseshoes!

RACE TO THE ALTAR

Anything goes in Sin City – including an Elvis impersonator doing the honors at the wedding of horses Romy and Roxy! The legendary Little Church of the West hosted the ceremony that celebrated some local horse racing events!
